Thank you so much for the Easter eggs that you sent to Finningley Church for our Easter chocolate raffle, they look amazing and will help us to raise money.

Philip brought them on your behalf today, and we've taken a picture, which I've sent with this letter, so you can see where they are. It will also go in our weekly magazine to show everyone how kind and thoughtful you have been in choosing to support us. I've also had to promise that I won't sneak over and eat any!!

I'm sorry that you couldn't all come down and see us, I was really looking forward to meeting you and saying thank you in person, but once everything settles down we would love if you could come over for a visit.

Until then, I wish you all a brilliant Easter, and don't eat all that chocolate all at once... and I'm talking to the staff there!

Best wishes,

Reverend Neil Redeyoff
Rector
